

J mark is the first bridge abutment from the East shore completely surrounded by navigable water

